Nick Ellis, MFH of The Camden Hunt, has many years showing and training horses in the hunter and jumper arena. From winning the AHSA Medal at PNHS in 1966, and the AHSA Medal at The Devon Horse Show in 1968, working for the famous Grande Prix rider Rodney Jenkins, showing many successful Open Jumpers with Jack Towell, galloping race horses for Bobby Davis, past director of Springdale Race Course, Nick has the experience and knowledge to be an exceptional clinician. Included in the fee, each rider will leave his clinic with an executive summary which explains many of his equitation techniques and distances of the gymnastics demonstrated during his clinic.

Hunter Hill offers an open space and plenty of room for everyone, and a shortened derby course will be set up for his clinic.
